About Us

Sitar Arts Center provides multidisciplinary arts education to the children and youth of Washington, DC in a nurturing, creative community where young people discover their inherent talents and gifts. Fostering personal and artistic growth through the visual arts, music, drama, dance, digital arts and creative writing, the Center offers after-school, weekend and summer classes to more than 800 students a year, 80 percent of whom come from low-income households.

More than 120 talented artists volunteer their time each week to teach and inspire the Center's students in a state-of-the-art facility. Together with a network of premier partnering arts organizations such as The Washington Ballet, National Symphony, and Washington Performing Arts, our passionate volunteer faculty makes a lasting impact on our students' lives.

Bringing high-quality arts education to families who would otherwise not have these opportunities, Sitar Arts Center relies on charitable contributions to ensure that no family is ever turned away because of inability to pay. To register for classes, volunteer or learn more about the Center, please call 202-797-2145 or visit www.sitarartscenter.org

TBA	Community Service Job Ask a staff member for more info	8th - 12th	A. Lorraine Robinson	All

All teens who are interested in community service, must register as a Sitar student for at least one teen arts class at Sitar AND register for “Community Service Job” during their registration time. A community service job (serving as an assistant for an arts class for younger ages, or serving as a lobby assistant) will then be assigned during the registration appointment. Community service is a weekly commitment for one to two hours per week for the duration of the semester with specific assigned hours. Community service students can accumulate 15 - 30 hours each semester. Students are responsible for tracking their own community service hours. Make-up hours are not generally available and may not be scheduled directly by the student. Additional hours may be accrued at special events and are assigned at the discretion of the Senior Director of Programs or the Student Affairs & Outreach Director.

For more information, please speak to A. Lorraine Robinson, Senior Director of Programs, or Ty Russell, Student Affairs & Outreach Director.
